

BOTANICAL CRAFTS

SPECIAL SATURDAY PROGRAM

NEW! Spring Crafts Saturday, May 31

This exciting day offers a selection of all new courses for those who want to create their own household decorations. Whether you would like to learn how to create a wreath or dress your wall, these courses offer inspiration and help you decorate your home by using dried and fresh botanicals. Participants may select as many as three topics from the six offerings. Saturday, May 31, Watson Building at the Botanical Garden

10 a.m.–12 p.m.

Eucalyptus Arch

This arch will look great in many places such as over a window, door, or on the wall. Use raffia and/or French wire ribbon with eucalyptus, hydrangea, and other dried material to arrange on the arch. The finished arch is approximately 30" or more long.

DIANA CONKLIN

SP CRF 131 SECTION A: 10 a.m.–12 p.m.

Lavender, Lavender, Lavender!

There are so many creative ways to use lavender! Using French lavender heads and dried lavender, start with a mini topiary, assorted sachets (using crochet dollies, tulle and small terra cotta pots), and decorating a pillar candle. Additionally, hear the history and use of lavender while working on your crafts.

SP CRF 131 Section B: 10 a.m.–12 p.m.

12:30–2:30 p.m.

Decorating Wreaths

Learn the steps of decorating a wreath such as keeping it symmetrical and balanced while still reflecting your personal taste. Start with a grapevine wreath, and add eucalyptus, ageratum, and other seasonal botanicals. Finish the wreath off by learning how to make a bow.

SP CRF 131 Section C: 12:30–2:30 p.m.

Lavender and Rosebud Picture Frame

What nicer way to display your photos than in a hand-decorated frame? Choose a 4"x6" or 5"x7" frame. Cover with green moss and sprigs of fragrant, blue French lavender. Finish with mauve rosebuds and place your picture inside.

SP CRF 131 Section D: 12:30–2:30 p.m.

3–5 p.m.

European Wheat Bundles

Create decorations for your home with a pair of painted French rose pots. Fill the pots with a natural green wheat standing straight and even on the top. Finish each pot with moss, leaves, and other dried flowers.

DIANA CONKLIN

SP CRF 131 Section E: 3–5 p.m.

A Basket for Your Wall

Decorate your wall with a basket full of blues, whites, and green botanicals. Learn to arrange sesame bloom, ti-tree, Australian daisy, and more in a grapevine basket. Finish off this elegant basket for your home with an ivory bow.

MADELINE YANNI

SP CRF 131 Section F: 3–5 p.m.
