RESEARCH AND PROJECT EXPERIENCE

2005 – present: Post Doctoral Research Associate, Institute of Economic Botany, The New York Botanical Garden, New York

- Project Director of the Dominican Traditional Medicine for Urban Community Health project funded by the National Institutes of Health/National Center for Complementary and Alternative Medicine (NIH/NCCAM)
- Developed questionnaires and lead NYC survey to interview Dominican immigrants about medicinal plants they know and use for common health conditions
- Scouted botánica shops in New York City to purchase medicinal plants
- Undertook a four-month field trip to the Dominican Republic to gather comparative data on Dominican medicinal plant knowledge in immigrants' home country
- Managed daily project activities, liaison for contacts with collaborators and responsible for the financial follow-up of the project
- Trained undergraduate students and interns to participate in the project

2004: Ethnobotany Researcher and Grant Writer, volunteer, Ghent University, Belgium

2003: Consultant for the Flemish Interuniversity Council, Belgium

- Wrote and presented a Spanish book on Bolivian medicinal plants in collaboration with the Universidad Mayor de San Simón in Cochabamba and traditional healers
- Undertook a mission to the Universidad Mayor de San Andrés, La Paz, Bolivia to formulate a project proposal to develop institutional capacity in ethnobotany research and training (using Project Cycle Management Methodology)

2000 – 2002: Post Doctoral Research Associate, Ghent University, Belgium

- Research topic: Medicinal plant explorations in the Andes and Amazon of Bolivia
- Fieldwork for collection of voucher specimens of medicinal plants
- Interviewed traditional healers about uses of medicinal plants
- Conducted community household surveys
- Undertook quantitative analysis of research data
- Trained and supervised undergraduate students from Europe (Ghent University, Université de Gembloux, Wageningen University) and Bolivia (Universidad Mayor de San Simón, Cochabamba)
- Networked with European R&D institutions and with Bolivian universities and NGOs
- Wrote project reports and was responsible for financial follow-up of the project
- Engaged in fundraising and lead community outreach initiatives

2000: Consultant for the Flemish Interuniversity Council, Belgium

- Started up a capacity-building and applied ethnobotany research project at the Universidad Central de Las Villas, Santa Clara, Cuba on plants used in traditional agriculture for development of biological herbi- and pesticides

- 1997 – 1998: Post Doctoral Research Associate, UCB Pharma, Belgium
 ➤ Conducted neuropharmacology research into animals models of depression and epilepsy
- 1991 – 1995: Doctoral Research Associate, Ghent University, Belgium
 ➤ Conducted PhD research on the neuropharmacological background of stereotyped behaviour induced by captivity in a rodent species as a model for human psychopathology

EDUCATION

- 1998: PhD in Medical Sciences, Ghent University, Belgium
 Dissertation title: Research into the neurobiochemical background of captivity-induced stereotyped behaviour in the bank vole (Clethrionomys glareolus): ethopharmacology and intracerebral microdialysis
- 1996: Qualified Teacher's Degree for Higher Secondary Education in Biology, Ghent University, Belgium
- 1991: BSc in Biology, Ghent University, Belgium

CERTIFICATION

- 2003: Workshop Systematics of Leguminosae, Herbario Forestal Nacional Martín Cárdenas, Cochabamba, Bolivia (20 hours of theory and practice)
- 1998: Certificate from the Board of the Research School Biodiversity for the 7-week International Training Course on Systematics of Neotropical Plant Families organized by the Herbarium of Utrecht University (The Netherlands)
 ➤ Course Objectives: recognition of more than 100 plant families of Tropical America, training in species identification, research paper on Bolivian medicinal Asteraceae (240 course hours)
- 1997: Doctoral Training Program Certificate, Ghent University, Belgium

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- 2007: Guest Lecturer in the Medical Anthropology Program of Mount Sinai School of Medicine, NYC
- 2006: Guest Lecturer in the Biology Department of the Universidad Mayor de San Simón, Bolivia
- 2003: Guest Lecturer in the International Training Course on Systematics of Neotropical Plant Families, Utrecht University, The Netherlands
- 2003: Guest Lecturer in the 5th United Nations University Biodiversity Training Course at Ghent University, Belgium
- 2002: Guest Lecturer in the 4th United Nations University Biodiversity Training Course at Ghent University, Belgium
- 2001: Guest Lecturer in the 3rd United Nations University Biodiversity Training Course at Ghent University, Belgium
- 2001: Visiting professor in the Masters Program in Environmental Sciences of the Universidad Mayor de San Simón, Cochabamba, Bolivia
 ➤ Teaching of the module Etnobotánica (10 course hours)
- 2000: Guest Lecturer in the 2nd United Nations University Biodiversity Training Course at Ghent University, Belgium

- 1999: Guest Lecturer Applied Systematic Botany (including practical exercises) at the Faculty of Agriculture and Applied Biological Sciences, Ghent University, Belgium
- Groups discussed in class: Bromeliales, Zingiberales, Malvales, Scrophulariales, Rubiales, Asterales
- 1999: Visiting professor in the Masters Program in Environmental Sciences of the Universidad Mayor de San Simón, Cochabamba, Bolivia.
- Teaching of the module Etnobotánica y Etnofarmacología (30 course hours and practical exercises)
  - Dissertation Committee Member for the MSc in Environmental Sciences (Maestría de Ciencias Ambientales)

FELLOWSHIPS, GRANTS & FUNDING

- 2005: South Initiatives grant for extension activities in the Bolivian Amazon (development cooperation) from the Flemish Interuniversity Council, Belgium (until 2006)
- 2003: South Initiatives grant for extension activities in the Bolivian Andes (development cooperation) from the Flemish Interuniversity Council, Belgium (until 2004)
- 2000: Ghost writer for the Own Initiatives project for capacity-building at the Universidad Central de las Villas, Santa Clara, Cuba (until 2004)
- 2000: Post-doctoral research fellowship from the Institute for the Promotion of Innovation through Science and Technology in Belgium (until 2002)
- 2001: Travel grant from the Fund for Scientific Research, Belgium
- 1991: Doctoral research fellowship from the Institute for the Promotion of Innovation through Science and Technology in Belgium (until 1995)

COUNTRY VISITS AND FIELDWORK

- 2006: Bolivia (October – November): 1 month
- 2006: Dominican Republic (February – May): 4 months
- 2005: Bolivia (November): 3 weeks
- 2005: Dominican Republic (October): 1 week
- 2004: Bolivia (December 2003 – May 2004): 6 months
- 2003: Bolivia (November – December): 1½ month
- 2003: Bolivia (June): 2 weeks
- 2002: Bolivia (January – May): 5 months
- 2001: Bolivia (July – October): 4 months
- 2001: Bolivia (January – May): 5 months
- 2000: Bolivia (July – October): 4 months
- 1999: Bolivia (November – December): 1 month
- 1999: Cuba (February – March): 1 month

SCIENTIFIC PRESENTATIONS

- Oral presentation at the Society for Economic Botany 48th Annual Meeting: “A transnational comparison of medicinal plant knowledge of Dominicans living in New York City and the Dominican Republic”, Chicago, IL, June 3-9, 2007
- Invited speaker at the Fourth Region II Healthy People 2010 Summit on Experiences, Accomplishments, and Understanding the Role of Culture in Eliminating Health Disparities: “Dominican Ethnomedicine in New York City”, NJ, December 6, 2006.
- Invited speaker at the Immigration and Alternative Healing Systems Symposium: “Knowledge and use of medicinal plants by Dominicans in New York City”, City University of New York Graduate Center, NY, November 3, 2005
- Invited speaker at the Biology seminars of Fairleigh Dickinson University: “Plant explorations in Bolivia”, NJ, September 8, 2005
- Invited speaker at the BWTS-workshop (Bilateral Scientific and Technological Cooperation between Ghent University, Belgium, and South Africa): “Ethnobotany research and its potential for drug development: a case study from Bolivia”, Ghent University, Belgium, October 22, 2004
- Oral presentation at the 9th International Congress of the International Society of Ethnobiology, the Society for Economic Botany and the International Society of Ethnopharmacology: “Comparison of ailments treated by a primary health care service and traditional healers in the Bolivian Andes”, University of Kent, Canterbury, UK, June 13-17, 2004

- Oral presentation as a short-listed candidate for the Lectureship in Ethnobotany and Medical Anthropology at the Department of Anthropology: “Medicinal plants for community health care in the Bolivian Andes and Amazon”, University of Kent, Canterbury, UK, March 23, 2004.
- Invited speaker at the Symposium Plants in Health and Culture: “Historical Perspectives on the Medicinal Plants in the Bolivian Andes and Amazon”, Leiden University, The Netherlands, February 16-17, 2004
- Oral presentation at the 3rd International Congress of Ethnobotany: “The European Ethnobotany Research Network (EERN): objectives, activities and themes of debate”, Naples, Italy, September 22-30, 2001
- Oral presentation at the 3rd International Congress of Ethnobotany: “Qualitative and quantitative aspects of medicinal plant use: the example of Quechua healers in the Bolivian Andes (Apillapampa, Department of Cochabamba)”, Naples, Italy, September 22-30, 2001
- Oral presentation at the Building Bridges with Traditional Knowledge II Conference: “Qualitative and quantitative analysis of traditional medicinal plant use by Quechua healers in the Bolivian Andes (Apillapampa, Department of Cochabamba)”, Hawaii, May 28 – June 2, 2001
- Poster presentation at the Symposium on Biodiversity: “Medical ethnobotany of Quechua-farmers in the Bolivian Andes: diversity, (ethno)classification and use of medicinal plants”, Louvain-la-Neuve, Belgium, December 13-14, 2000
- Oral presentation at the Seminars on Ethnobotany of UKC: “EERN, the European Ethnobotany Research Network”, Kent University, Canterbury, UK, 13-15 December, 1999

LANGUAGE SKILLS

- Dutch Mother Tongue
- English Fluency in speaking, reading and writing
- Spanish Fluency in speaking, reading and writing
Certificates obtained: Spanish level 1-4 at the Language Centre of Ghent University, Belgium (1996-1999)
- French Satisfactory speaking, reading and writing
1997 – 1998: one year of practical experience (Braine l’Alleud, Belgium)
- German Basic knowledge of speaking and reading

SOFTWARE PROFICIENCY

- Windows XP, MS Office 2000 (Word, Excel, Powerpoint, Access)
- Statistical software: Sigmastat 2.0 (Jandel Scientific), SPSS 11.0
