June Events 2017

Tree Care Workshop with the Fruit Tree Planting Foundation

Tuesday, June 6 • 2–3 p.m.

DeWitt Clinton High School Garden • 100 West Mosholu Parkway South

This workshop, featuring arborist Rico Montenegro, will demonstrate using compost to fortify the soil of trees at a local orchard. Expect FREE musical entertainment, food, and much more afterwards at the Bronx Music Garden! To register, please fill out the form at <https://tinyurl.com/compostbx> or call 718.817.8543.

Info Table: Bronx Music Garden

Tuesday, June 6 • 2–4 p.m.

DeWitt Clinton High School Garden • 100 West Mosholu Parkway South

Music Garden is an annual event series that combines the love for music, sustainability and urban agriculture. Stop by our informational table to learn how you can recycle your food scraps and other organic materials to divert them from the landfill. Also, be sure to grab a reusable bag as part of NYC Department of Sanitation's citywide giveaway. To find other citywide events where you can pick up a reusable bag, visit <http://on.nyc.gov/2iB4H25>.

Info Table: Bronx Day

Saturday, June 10 • 11 a.m.–3 p.m.

New York Botanical Garden • Clay Family Picnic Pavilion

Stop by for free tip sheets, pamphlets, and class schedules designed to help gardeners increase their composting know-how. Experts will be on hand to answer composting questions. Advance tickets are required for Bronx Day. Supplies are limited. To receive your free tickets, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope with the number of tickets requested (6 maximum) by June 1 to: Elizabeth Figueroa, Director of Community Relations, The New York Botanical Garden, 2900 Southern Boulevard, Bronx, NY 10458-5126. For more information, call 718.817.8990. Parking is $15.
