NYBG Adds Two CHIHULY Nights to the Final Week of Its Immensely Popular Exhibition

Wednesday, October 25, and Sunday, October 29 Added to the Schedule of CHIHULY Nights Slated for Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays, 6:30–10:30 p.m., through the Exhibition's Close

What

Wednesday, October 25, and Sunday, October 29, have been added to The New York Botanical Garden's schedule of CHIHULY Nights taking place from 6:30–10:30 p.m. on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings, through the end of this month. Visitors now have two more opportunities to see the popular exhibition at night.

CHIHULY, the major new exhibition at The New York Botanical Garden, presented by Bank of America, opened on April 22 and runs through October 29, 2017. It features more than 20 installations by world-renowned artist Dale Chihuly.

On CHIHULY Nights, the exhibition is infused with a magical energy as the artworks are spectacularly illuminated amid NYBG's sweeping vistas and magnificent Conservatory. After sunset, the atmosphere is thrilling: experience the heightened drama and luminous quality of Dale Chihuly's colors and forms when lit under the evening sky. In the Visitor Center plaza, a rotating lineup of performing artists and musicians provides entertainment while visitors relax and enjoy shopping, food, and Avión Tequila cocktails available for purchase.

When

Every Thursday, Friday, and Saturday through October 2017, plus Wednesday, October 25, and Sunday, October 29; 6:30–10:30 p.m.
