BRONX, N.Y. — The New York Botanical Garden's 2018 Garden Art & Antiques Fair opens with a Preview Party and Collectors' Plant Sale on Thursday, May 3, from 6-8 p.m., and continues through Sunday, May 7. The Fair takes place at the Garden and continues with a weekend-long celebration featuring the choicest plants, antiques, and art.

Floral and Fine Antique Design Showcase

Visitors can explore a wide range of decorative art and classic furniture of the finest quality for the home and garden from nearly 30 leading dealers. New for 2018, experts take the stage for engaging and informative sessions on topics from interior to floral design. Guests can meet with prominent designers who will share their expertise by offering advice on how to incorporate items purchased at the Fair into homes and gardens.

The Garden Art & Antiques Fair takes place in the Conservatory Tent. It is the ideal venue for learning about garden antiques and building personal collections. Admission to the Fair on Friday through Sunday, May 4-6, is included with the All-Garden Pass, available at www.nybg.org.
