Enjoy New York Botanical Garden's glorious spring spectacle during a weekend-long celebration featuring the finest plants, antiques, and art to make your home and garden beautiful. This year's show features a newly expanded specialty plant sale. The festivities begin with a curated collection of rare and exotic garden plants hand-picked by NYBG's horticultural staff, who are on hand to advise guests on the best selections for your home and garden. Be the first to shop the Fair's exquisite selection of fine antiques and enjoy demonstrations and book signings by some of NYC's finest interior and floral designers, as well as a fabulous Silent Auction, plus music, signature cocktails, and light fare (Special ticket required).

Among the dealers exhibiting are Rayon Roskar, Pagoda Red, Lost City Arts, American Primitive Gallery, Scott Bassoff & Sandy Jacobs, Jeffrey Henkel, Barbara Israel Garden Antiques, Leatherwood Antiques, Francis J. Purcell, Village Braider Antiques, and Bob Withington & Company.

The New York Botanical Garden is an iconic living museum, a major educational institution, and a renowned plant research and conservation organization. Founded in 1891 and now a National Historic Landmark, it is one of the greatest botanical gardens in the world and the largest in any city in the United States, distinguished by the beauty of its diverse landscape and extensive collections and gardens, as well as by the scope and excellence of its programs.
