SOWING LATE SUMMER AND FALL CROPS WORKSHOP | JACKSON FOREST COMMUNITY GARDEN
Saturday, August 28 • 11 a.m.–1 p.m.
Jackson Forest Community Garden • 1143 Forest Avenue

Join us at Jackson Forest Community Garden for an informative workshop on fall planting!

Learn which crops grow best as we transition into shorter days and cooler nights. Also, we will cover deadlines, sowing techniques, and maintenance practices to ensure your crops get off to a great start.

All attendees must follow social distancing guidelines. Face coverings are required for all attendees who are not fully vaccinated against COVID-19.

For more information on other upcoming tours, and to reserve your space, fill out the form at https://www.nybg.org/sowing-late-summer-and-fall-crops-workshop/ or call 718.817.8026.

RECEIVE E-NEWSLETTER OF BRONX GREEN-UP AND NYC COMPOST PROJECT

Want to stay in the know? Sign up for our newsletter, which is sent via e-mail. It will arrive before the first week of each month with news about opportunities for urban gardeners and composters, including workshops, events, resources, and job postings. If you would like to receive the e-newsletter, email bronxgreenup@nybg.org

Bronx Green-Up, the community gardening outreach program of the New York Botanical Garden, provides horticultural advice, technical assistance, and training to community gardeners, school groups, and other organizations interested in improving urban neighborhoods through greening projects. Please visit nybg.org/bronxgreenup for more information. To sign up for our mailing list or e-list, send your contact information to bronxgreenup@nybg.org.
