Bronx Green-Up, the community gardening outreach program of the New York Botanical Garden, provides horticultural advice, technical assistance, and training to community gardeners, school groups, and other organizations interested in improving urban neighborhoods through greening projects. Please visit nybg.org/bronxgreenup for more information. To sign up for our mailing list or e-list, send your contact information to bronxgreenup@nybg.org.

Pre-registration is recommended.
To reserve your place, email bronxgreenup@nybg.org or call 718.817.8026. Space is limited for some events; priority will be given to members of our sites in the Bronx.

COVER CROP WORKSHOP

Saturday, September 18 • 12–1:30 p.m.
Kelly Street Garden • 924 Kelly Street

Cover crops are planted to manage soil fertility and biodiversity in your garden ecology. Introducing various cover crops into your seasonal rotations can result in a direct impact to plant health and crop yields. Come learn more about these awesome techniques and how they can be of benefit to your garden spaces! Registration is required.

All attendees must follow social distancing guidelines. Face coverings are required for all attendees, regardless of vaccination status.

For more information on other upcoming workshops, and to reserve your space, fill out the form at https://www.nybg.org/cover-crops-workshop/ or call 718.817.8026.

BRONX FOOD & FARM TOUR | BISSEL GARDENS

Saturday, September 25 • 11 a.m.– 1 p.m.
Bissel Garden • Intersection of Barnes Ave and Bruner Ave

Join us at Bissel Gardens for the last tour of the season on Saturday, September 25, at 11 a.m. Meet us at The Propagation Area at Barnes and Bruner Avenues. The tour will be led by Bissel member Heather Warren-Dombrowa, who will introduce you to the various gardens and persons that make up this green oasis. Then, we will stroll to their Farmers' Market to enjoy a healthy cooking demonstration by B. Blossom Catering and health screenings by Montefiore. To meet us at any of the sites, RSVP at https://www.nybg.org/september-bronx-food-farm-tour/ for the schedule. Registration is required.

All attendees must follow social distancing guidelines. Face coverings are required for all attendees, regardless of vaccination status.

Bronx Green-Up, the community gardening outreach program of the New York Botanical Garden, provides horticultural advice, technical assistance, and training to community gardeners, school groups, and other organizations interested in improving urban neighborhoods through greening projects. Please visit nybg.org/bronxgreenup for more information. To sign up for our mailing list or e-list, send your contact information to bronxgreenup@nybg.org.
Bronx Green-Up, the community gardening outreach program of the New York Botanical Garden, provides horticultural advice, technical assistance, and training to community gardeners, school groups, and other organizations interested in improving urban neighborhoods through greening projects. Please visit nybg.org/bronxgreenup for more information. To sign up for our mailing list or e-list, send your contact information to bronxgreenup@nybg.org.

This event is in collaboration with B. Blossom, Bronx Tourism Council, Bissel Gardens, La Familia Verde, Mary Mitchell Family and Youth Center, Montefiore Health System, NYC Parks GreenThumb, and the Office of the Bronx Borough President.

To reserve your space, fill out the form at https://www.nybg.org/september-bronx-food-farm-tour/ or call 718.817.8026.

RECEIVE E-NEWSLETTER OF BRONX GREEN-UP AND NYC COMPOST PROJECT

Want to stay in the know? Sign up for our newsletter, which is sent via e-mail. It will arrive before the first week of each month with news about opportunities for urban gardeners and composters, including workshops, events, resources, and job postings. If you would like to receive the e-newsletter, email bronxgreenup@nybg.org.