Bronx Green-Up, the community gardening outreach program of the New York Botanical Garden, provides horticultural advice, technical assistance, and training to community gardeners, school groups, and other organizations interested in improving urban neighborhoods through greening projects. Please visit nybg.org/bronxgreenup for more information. To sign up for our mailing list or e-list, send your contact information to bronxgreenup@nybg.org.

Pre-registration is recommended. To reserve your place, email bronxgreenup@nybg.org or call 718.817.8026. Space is limited for some events; priority will be given to members of our sites in the Bronx.

GARLIC PLANTING WORKSHOP
Multiple dates and locations

Join us at La Finca del Sur and New Roots Community Farm to learn how to plant garlic bulbs. Garlic is planted in the fall, unlike most of our vegetable crops so it can lie dormant throughout the winter and is ready for harvest in the warmer months.

La Finca del Sur
East 138th Street and Grand Concourse
Saturday, October 30 • 1–5 p.m.

New Roots Community Farm
670 Grand Concourse
Saturday, November 6 • 10:30–11:30 a.m.

All attendees must follow social distancing guidelines. Face coverings are required for all attendees, regardless of vaccination status.

To RSVP, please email us at bronxgreenup@nybg.org or call 718.817.8026.

RECEIVE E-NEWSLETTER OF BRONX GREEN-UP AND NYC COMPOST PROJECT

Want to stay in the know? Sign up for our newsletter, which is sent via e-mail. It will arrive before the first week of each month with news about opportunities for urban gardeners and composters, including workshops, events, resources, and job postings. If you would like to receive the e-newsletter, email bronxgreenup@nybg.org.
