FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: June 2, 2023

NYBG's Farmer's Market, Named One of the Top 10 Farmers Markets in NYC, is Open for Business Every Wednesday Through October 18, 2023

A Variety of Locally Grown Produce, Fresh Baked Goods, and Other Specialty Items Available for Purchase from Regional Vendors

Bronx, NY—The New York Botanical Garden's Farmers Market, which Time Out New York called one of the “Top 10 Farmers Markets in New York City,” is open for the season on Wednesdays through October 18, 2023. Located just inside the Mosholu Entrance and across the street from the Botanical Garden station of the Metro-North commuter railroad, the NYBG Farmers Market offers a diverse array of fresh, locally grown and produced vegetables, fruits, baked goods, and specialty foods.

Bringing the flavors of the seasons to New Yorkers throughout the summer and into the fall every Wednesday, 10 a.m.–3 p.m., the NYBG Farmers Market focuses on healthy choices for the mind and body. Visitors can also partake in walking tours, self-guided forest bathing, and more.

The weekly vendors (subject to change*) at the NYBG Farmers Market will include:

The NYBG Farmers Market is run by Pascale Le Draoulec, who manages farmers markets in the Westchester communities of Hastings, Irvington, Chappaqua, and Bronxville. The market accepts cash, credit and debit cards, and EBT cards.

As an added convenience, visitors can shop at the Farmers Market first, then store their fresh produce with the Garden's complimentary Veggie Valet service as they explore NYBG's lush grounds and blooming collections. Purchases will be kept on ice until visitors pick them up before they leave.

Admission to the Garden grounds is free on Wednesdays all day for New York City residents and from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. for anyone regardless of residency, allowing visitors to explore many of the Garden's offerings such as the ever-changing flowers and plant collections in the award-winning, sustainable Peggy Rockefeller Rose Garden, the 50-acre old-growth Thain Family Forest, the Native Plant Garden, the Perennial Garden, and the inspiring Home Gardening Center.

Tours

Visitors can explore NYBG through a wealth of tours and activities. From bird-watching to self-guided forest bathing, there is something for everyone. Check the daily handout when you arrive at the Garden for a full list of drop-in tours on various topics led by NYBG's knowledgeable tour guides.
